PRESIDENT WILSON GOING TO EUROPE

WILL ATTEND OPENING SESSIONS OF GREAT PEACE CONFERENCE

Will Leave Immediately After Convening of the Regular Session of Congress, December 2 — Length of Time to Be Spent Abroad Unknown—Plans Have Not Been Revealed—Will Be Accompanied by Mrs. Wilson — Expected to be Accorded Big Reception.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—President Wilson will attend the opening sessions of the peace conference. This was announced tonight officially. He will go immediately after the convening of the regular session of congress on December 2.

Official White House Announcement

This official statement was issued at the White House: "The president expects to sail for France immediately after the opening of the regular session of congress for the purpose of taking part in the discussion and settlement of the main features of the treaty of peace. It is not likely that it will be possible for him to remain thruout the sessions of the formal peace conference, but his presence at the outset is necessary in order to obviate the manifest disadvantages of discussion by the cable in determining the greater outlines of the treaty about which he must necessarily be consulted. He will be accompanied by delegates who will sit as the representatives of the United States thruout the conference.

"The names of the delegates will be presently announced."

How long the president will remain abroad he himself probably cannot say now. The time for the convening of the peace conference has not yet been announced, but the general belief here is that it cannot be assembled before late in December at the earliest. If such proves the case, the president will be absent from the country for at least a month and probably longer.

What plans the president may have for his trip other than to attend the opening of the peace conference and to participate in the discussion among the representatives of the associated nations which will precede it have not been revealed. He undoubtedly will be accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and it is expected here that besides visiting Paris, where the peace congress probably will be held, he will go to London and possibly to Brussels and Rome.

President Expected to Receive Big Reception

Mr. Wilson is expected to receive abroad a reception such as has been accorded but few men in public life. He will be welcomed not only as the president of the United States and the commander-in-chief of its armies and navy, but also as the champion of world democracy. In visiting Europe the president will establish two precedents. He will be the first chief executive of the United States to participate in a peace conference for the settling of issues growing out of a war in which this country participated and likewise he will be the first president to leave North America during his term in office

In reaching his decision to attend the peace conference, President Wilson is understood to have been largely influenced by representations from Premiers Lloyd George, of Great Britain, and Clemenceau of France, and other statesmen of the entente countries. The principles and terms of settlement enunciated by the president have been accpted by both the associated nations and the central powers as the basis upon which peace is to be re-established and it is understood that it is for the working out of the application of these principles that his presence is so earnestly desired by the allied statesmen.

Since the president is to sail for France early next month, it seems certain that he will reach Paris several weeks before the peace congress assembles. His purpose is believed here to be to participate in the conference now proceding at Versailles as the preliminary to the meeting of the peace commissioners. He thus will have opportunity to discharge in person for the first time the duties of his membership in the supreme war council in which he is now represented by Col. E. M. House.

In the general view here the sessions of the supreme war council, which brings together the entente premiers with the representatives of the United States are of first importance for in all probability it will be at these sessions that the general program which is to govern the peace congress will be arranged.

Will Attend Opening Session

The president will attend the opening sessions of the congress at which the broad principles of the treaty will be settled, but he will not remain for the subsequent detailed discussions and settlements of the various questions.

This will be the work of the commissioners he soon is to name to represent the United States.

By carrying out this unusual program of having the conference draft and adopt a general peace treaty at the outset, the president and the entente premiers will be able soon after the commissioners assemble to return to their own countries and attend to important business at home.

Since the suggestion that the president attend the peace conference first was made there has been much discussion here as to whether while absent from the country he could continue to act as president. The constitution itself is silent on the question and generally the question is regarded as one which the president himself must decide.

The prevailing opinion here is that Mr. Wilson already has made up his mind on this subject. He does not go to peace conference as a delegate, and consequently, it is held that should he relinquish his authority and functions of office he would be without power to act for the United States in the discussions. There is ample precedent for the president to leave the territorial limits of the United States. President Harrison on one occasion went into Canada, while President Taft visited both that country and Mexico. President Roosevelt and also President Taft visited the Panama canal zone.

Other Presidents Left Country

Both President Taft and President Roosevelt continued to perform the functions of their office while on the visits to the canal sending instructions to Washington both by cable and wireless. It was pointed out today that the president could in this manner attend to any pressing matters of importance here while he is abroad.

In all probability the president will cross the Atlantic on an American battleship probably on one of the navy's newest dreadnaughts. While on such a ship, it is claimed, he is on American territory and technically would be absent from the country for such time as he actually is on foreign soil.

If the president intends to delegate any of the functions of his office Vice President Marshal has not been so informed and this fact was accepted in some quarters as clearly indicating that the president has decided that his physical absence from the country does not create such a vacancy in the office as to fall within the section of the constitution which clothes the vice president with authority to discharge the duties of the office during the inability of the president to act.

The question of what effect the president's absence will have on the work of congress was freely discussed tonight in congressional circles.

Many held that the president could not approve or veto legislation while absent as the actual signature of the president is required. Under the provisions of the constitution if bills are not acted upon by the chief executive within ten days after their passage they automatically become effective.

Little Business To Do Here

Very little important business will be transacted by congress in December under the program as now outlined. No pressing legislative matters now pending or in prospect are likely to be completed before the expected adjournment of congress for over the Christmas holidays. And if congress does adjourn it will not reassemble until early in January and the president probably will return home soon afterward. There was no statement tonight as to whether the American delegates to the peace conference actually will accompany the president or will follow at a later date. In some quarters it was regarded as likely that they would make the trip with the president so as to give them advantage of conferences with representatives of the allied nations before the peace congress convenes.

Secretary Lansing undoubtedly will head the American commissioners.

General Tasker H. Bliss is expected to head the military representatives from this country who will assist in the work of the peace conference while Vice Admiral Sims probably will be selected to head the naval delegation.

Besides the delegates and military and naval representatives there will be a secretary to the delegation and a number of assistant secretaries and clerks.

LIBERATED PEOPLE SEARCH FOR HOMES

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press).—The refuge populations which have been freed in Belgium and France are on the move these days, intent upon regaining their homes, from which many have been separated since the beginning of the war. Everywhere one sees long lines of country folk coming or going over the main roads with their pitiful possessions.

Almost every family group marches cheerfully ahead with big or little Belgian flags flying and not a few American flags among the lot.

Many of the hamlet people are already patching up their shattered houses enough to keep out the rain. Even in Dixmude which is on a level with the ground the people are already living in the cellars.

The city of Antwerp appears to have come thru the years of German occupation well as compared with many other cities, tho the people suffered under the load of exceedingly high prices.

Great preparations have been underway for the entry of the king and queen, and the road between Ghent and Antwerp is beflagged.

MANN REFUSES TO ANNOUNCE PLANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18—Representative Mann of Illinois, Republican leader in the house returned to Washington today after several months absence because of illness. He said he had no announcement to make just now as to the speakership in the next congress or whether he would resume the minority floor leadership in the winter session.

"I never felt better in my life", declared Mr. Mann, "but I have no plans as to the future and will not make any until I have consulted my physicians."

AMERICAN RED CROSS HONORED

Paris, Nov. 18.—The municipal council gave a reception today in honor of the American Red Cross The city hall, where the function was held was magnificently decorated and the great reception room was illuminated for the first time since the outbreak of the war. The government was represented by M. Mourier, under-secretary of state for medical advice. Marshal Joffre was also present and received an ovation.

DEMOBILIZATION OF AIR SERVICE FACES OFFICIALS

Plans Being Worked Out By Government Not Disclosed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Demobilization of the army air service presents a separate problem on which the war department officials are at work. How it is to be accomplished so that the tir craft manufacturing industry now a government monopoly can be preserved has not been disclosed, but it is possible to state authoritatively some of the considerations that will govern demobilization plans.

Secretary Baker is known to regard the air service as the field of military enterprise in which the greatest developments are to be expected. For that reason the army program to be laid before congress probably will show recommendations for continuing the aviation branches on a scale disproportionate to the other arms of the service. Every effort is expected to be made to improve existing types of planes and engines or develop new ones.

It is certain that the plans being formulated will make provision for retaining in the permanent military establishment officers and men who have displayed marked ability in the operation production and equipment of airplanes, balloons and other aircraft.

U. S. Controls Production.

The monopoly of the government extends to every branch of aircraft production. To make a start on the extra-ordinary program laid out, it was necessary to build from the ground up; to to create virtually every facility required; even to the growing of castor beans to furnish the lubricating oil required. The only exception is the automobile factories which were turned from building engines for motor cars to the production of Liberty Motors and other aircraft engines.

For these plants, the transition back to peace time industry is natural and may have complete plans for after-the-war conditions on which they are at work. There exists, however, no market except for the government for aircraft that can possibly engage any part of the other plants now devoted wholly to that production and the future of these plants is not clear.

Outstanding contracts for military planes of various types are understood to total between 25,000 and 30,000. It is regarded as likely that virtually all of these will be cancelled. Many of the orders clearly have been slowed down if not definitely withdrawn.

It was said tonight that there was no need to equip heavily with any of the types now in production for military use as improved machines of greater speed, endurance ad meneuvering power were developed while every energy was being strained to reach quanity production here of the DeHavilands and Handley-Page designs. It is to the new types that chief attention will be given by the government.

Government Owns 32 Fields

In addition to the manufacturing monopoly which includes the assembling of scientific data of the utmost value on the whole question of air flight, the government has complete monopoly over the training facilities for fliers. It owns some 32 flying fields in the United States, all fully equipped and built up preliminary courses in colleges and universities in all parts of the country.

The home aviation schools are fitted to turn out 2,000 men a month rated as reserve military aviators, while there are in this country more than 12,000 men who either have passed thru that school system or are nearing completion of their training.

There are also tens of thousands of airplane mechanics and 3,000 aviators in France at least one half or whom are fully qualified military pilots.

In the opinion of many officials the future of air navigation in the United States rests largely with these men trained to fly by the government. Having had a taste of air work, it is believed that the majority of these men always will yearn to continue flying and thru them great stimulus will be given to the development of the aircroft industry by private enterprises. For the time being however, the army and navy services, supplemented by the aerial postal service will be the only outlet for the product of such an industry and to insure these government needs, it is thought it will necessary for the army to follow the navy practice and take over some one of the great plants where machines for both the army and the postal service can be turned out until a normal manufacturing industry has been developed.

Will Be Paced in Reserve.

Cadets who elect to complete their training will be discharged when they finish the course will be given commissions as second lieutenants in the officers' reserve corps.

Candidates for commissions at balloon schools also will be given an opportunity to complete their training after which they will be commissioned in the officers' reserve corps.

It also was announced that orders had been issued for the closing of Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, Mich., Chanute Field Rantoul, Ill., and Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., and for the abandonment of the air service mechanics school at St. Paul, Minn.

Hurley Hopes To Standardize Seaman's Wages

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Chairman Hurley of the shipping board who sailed for Europe last Saturday to prepare for the returning of American troops to this country and for moving needed food supplies to the war famished nations overseas also plans an international agreement between the government, shipping interests and labor organizations of the principal maritime powers for standardization of seamen's wages and working conditions. It was said today that Mr. Hurley expects to propose that the American laws and the agreements between the government and the seamen's unions on these subjects be accepted as the standards and it is understood that the American Federation of Labor and the British Seamen's Union are prepared to support the proposal.

Such an agreement it was said, would eliminate the chief difficulty that has confronted American shipping interests in past years in their attempts to operate ships in competition with other nations. The standards for American seamen are said to be the highest in the world and now that this country is putting a great fleet of ships on the sea officials believe that unless some international agreement is reached a great proportion of trained seamen will be attracted to the American Merchant Marine.

It was learned today that the shipping board as far as consistent with the necessities of government needs is diverting ships to normal trade routes and that within a few months officials hope to have American shipps carrying needed commodities of peace to South and Central America, Asia and Africa as well as to Europe.

CIVILIANS OF MONTMEDY WELCOME AMERICANS

Yankee Troops Reach City Early Sunday Morning—French Flags Unfurled for First Time in Four Years.

With the American Forces of Occupation, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press).—A thousand civilians greeted the vanguard of the second American division which reached Montmedy shortly before eight o'clock Sunday morning. The civilians knew the Americans were coming but were surprised at the early hour of their arrival.

Montmedy is little scarred as the result of the war except for the railroad yard, where the bombs of American aviators some time ago displaced tons of earth and tore up the railroad. When the Americans arrived in Montmedy the civilians were still at work putting up flags along the principal streets. Soon after the excitement of the welcome was over the Americans were surprised to see shopkeepers open their stores.

French flags which had not been unfurled for four years in Montmedy predominated the scheme of decoration, but here and there, American flags appeared. The Americans were at a loss to understand where they came from until a civilian explained that they had been made by the French women in anticipation of the arrival of the Americans.

Detachments of the division spent part of the day in Montmedy. During the afternoon the marine band gave a concert in the city square, which had been renamed by the Germans, Berliner Plattz. The civilians crowded around and embraced the bandsmen when they finished the concert with a rendition of "The Marseillaise."

Late Sunday afternoon the advanced columns of the second divisions started forward from Montmedy to make room for additional units coming on from the west.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The report of the death of the former queen of Bavaria is untrue, according to a Munich dispatch received by the Sentral News by way of Amsterdam. The dispatch add that the former queen is seriously ill.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The postal service has been re-established thruout the whole of France and Belgium.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Illinois, outside of Chicago, has raised its quota in the United War Work campaign, it was officially announced tonight. With contributions of $1,151,597 in the state outside of Cook county today the total receipts now amount to $4,558,438. Chicago has raised 5,765,388 out of its quota of $8,500,000 today's contributions amounting to $553,700.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—At a cabinet meeting today presided over by President Poincare, it was decided to appoint as commissioners to the republic at Strassburg, Metz and Colmar, Georges Maringer, director of the secret service; M. Miran, prefect of the department of Meurthe et Moselle and M. Poulet, respectively.

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—The British steamer Cascapedia, which was last night reported in distress off Cape Race, has been abandoned and set on fire and the crew rescued by the British steamer Bellerophon, according to a radio message received here late today.

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Nov. 18.—"I have nothong to say," was Thomas J. Mooney's only comment when Warden James J. Johnston went to his cell in the state penitentiary here and told him that his appeal seeking a reversal of his murder conviction had been denied by the United States supreme court. Mooney is under sentence to die December 13.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—Every province in Canada went over the top in subscriptions to the dominion's second liberty loan, it was officially announced tonight, the quota of $500,000,000 being oversubscribed by $176,000,00.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The first American troops to depart homeward as a result of the signing of the armistice will be 18,000 men stationed in England. The American army expects to start the first ship load of these soldiers homeward within a week and to have all the men on their way back to the United States ten days later.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—A long wireles despatch, signed by Dr. Solf, the German foreign secretary addressed to the American, British and French and Italian governments has been picked up here.

The despatch asks elucidation, "in a mollifying sense" of the conditions of the armistice concerning the left bank of the Rhine without we "shall inevitable advance toward more or less Bolshevist conditions which bight become dangerous to neighboring states."

CAMPAIGN TO RETURN CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—An active campaign to secure the return to school of thousands of children who have been drawn into industry during the war emergency has been launched by the children's bureau of the department of labor. An announcement today said letters had been sent to all state officials resonsible for the enforcement of school attendance and child labor laws, seeking their co-operation.

FOUR KILLED IN SOUTHERN RIOTS

WINSTOM SALEM, N. C., Nov. 18.—Order was restored today after a night of rioting in which four persons were killed and a score injured when a mob attempted to lynch Russell High, a negro, held in the city jail on charges of shooting a farmer, the county sheriff, and attacking the farmer's wife.

The negro is believed to have been removed elsewhere for safe keeping.

The arrival of 175 soldiers from Camp Greene early today had a pronounced effect on the mob, which dispersed.

READY TO ABDICATE

Basel, Nov. 18.—Prince Gunther of Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt, a principality of Germany at the demand of the diet has declared his readiness to abdicate, according to a dispatch from Rudolstadt.

RECRUITING INCREASES

Washington, Nov. 18.—The end of hostilities apparently has given impetus to recruiting for the merchant marine. The shipping board announced today that the enrollment of 1,000 men last week was higher than the weekly average during the war period.

Cost of War To Belligerents Two Hundred Billions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The direct cost of the war for all belligerent nations to last May 1 was reported at about $175,000,000,000, the federal reserve board bulletin, issued today, and it is estimated that the cost will amount to nearly $200,000,000,000 before the end of this year. These calculations were compiled by the board from various sources and while their accuracy is not vouched for, the board believes the figures are substantially correct.

For purely military and naval purposes it is estimated that all belligerents had spent about $132,000,000,000 to May 1, or about three fourths of the total war cost. The balance represented interest on debt and other indirect war expenses.

How the cost mounted as the war grew in proportion from year to year is illustrated by tabulations showing that the mobilization and the first five months of the war in 1914 cost all belligerents about $10,000,000,000. In 1915 the expense jumped to $26,000,000,000, in 1916 they increased to $35,000,000,000 and in 1917 they were estimated at $60,000,000,000. This year the expenses have run only a little above the rate last year.

About $150,000,000,000 of the total war cost has been raised by war loans of various nations and comparatively little by taxation. The public debt of the principal entente allies is calculated at approximately $105,000,000,000 or more than twice the aggregate debt of the Central Powers, set at $45,000,000,000. This does not take into consideration debt incurred since last May.

The enormous size of the war costs and debt is illustrated by comparison with the anti-war debt of the seven principal belligerents which did not exceed $25,000,000,000. The cost of supporting this debt was only about $1,000,000,000 a year. Hereafter the annual burden to pay interest and sinking fund allowances will be not less than $10,000,000,000 and probably much more.

Leaders Agree On Plans To Adjourn Present Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Adjournment of the present session of congress next Thursday was arranged today by Democratic and Republican leaders of the senate and house. This will enable members to secure travel mileage allowances and will prevent the present session which began last Dec. 3, from merging with the third and final session of this, the sixty fifth congress which will open December 2.

Ending of the present session Thursday was agreed upon after the senate finance committee had decided that it could not report the revised six billion dollar revenue bill before the date for the beginning of the new session.

The prohibition bill which goes to the president Thursday, the most pressing business of the session was completed.

When congress adjourned the senate finance committee continue revision of the revenue bill in accord with suggestions by Secretary McAdoo and house committees will begin framing the 1820 appropriation bills.

Since the department estimates were prepared with continuance of the war in view, sharp reductions in the appropriations are contemplated by congressional leaders The house appropriations sub-commitee will meet tomorrow to begin hearings in the legislative, executive and judiciary bill, while the naval committee will begin work at the same time on the naval appropriation measure.

Secretary Daniels has recommended to congress that this bill carry $2,400,000,000, but it is estimated that this amount will be pared now.

MAJ. GEN. DICKNAN COMMANDS 3RD ARMY

PARIS, Sunday, Nov. 17.—Major General Dickman, who will command the Third Army, which will be the "army of occupation" was formerly in command of the Third division at the time of its defense of the south bank of the Marne in the east of Chateau Thierry on May 31 and the succeeding weeks. Later he was put in command of a corps. His chief of staff will be Brigadier General Malin Craig.

DALLAS HEADS A. A. U.

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—Samuel J. Dallas of the Meadow Brook Club, Philadelphia, was today unanimously elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

HAVE NO WORD ON DELIVERY OF GERMAN FLEET

Much Speculation As to Final Disposition of Fleet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—There was no announcement here today regarding the delivery of the fleet of battleships, battle cruisers and light cruisers which Germany was required under the terms of the armistice to surrender today to the associated nations. Nor was there any information as to the names of the ports at which the vessels were to be interned.

There were much speculation as to the final disposition of the ships, but in the absence of any official information many officers thought this matter would be left until the peace conference meets. The armistice provided that the vessels were to be disarmed before they left Germany and that they were to be interned at neutral or allied ports as the associated governments might direct with only caretakers on board.

Publication of the names of the batleships and cruisers which were designated by the associated governments for delivery reveals that Germany is stripped of at least half of the fleet of dreadnaughts which it had in commission or building when the war began and of practically all of its battle cruisers.

Dreadnaughts Enormous.

The dreadnaughts Kronprinz Wilhelm, Grosser Kurfurst, Markgraf and Konig are of the same type, each 580 feet long and of 26,000 tons. They were designed for a speed of 23 knots and had just been completed when the war opened. They were armed with ten 12 inch and fourteen 5.9 inch guns.

The Prinzregent Luitpold, Koenig, Kaiserin, Kaiser and Friedrech der Grosse were completed in 1913 and are 546 feet long with a speed of 21 knots and of 24,000 tons. They also carried ten 12 inch guns each and fourteen 5.9 inch rifles.

Available naval records here do not show a battleship Bayern but it is regarded as possible that this is one of the three new dreadnaughts completed since the war started. These were authorized in 1913 and 1914 and were to have been of 29,000 tons displacement with eight 15 inch rifles each.

Besides the craft delivered Germany had four older dreadnaughts but their surrender was not required. They will be disarmed and laid up in German ports.

REPORTS ON U. W. W. CAMPAIGN NOT READY

New York, Nov. 18.—The definite reports to date of total subscriptions to the United War Work campaign will not be available until tomorrow, the national headquarters announced tonight that the aggregate had gone far beyond $125,000,950 that had been pledged up to Saturday night. Upstate New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Maryland alone raised the figure more than $3,000,000, while half a million college, high and private school students who formed themselves into a division with a self alloted quota of $2,000,000 reported they had "gone over the top."

FRENCH TROOPS TO ENTER METZ TODAY

PARIS, Nov. 18. — British Wireless Service.—It is officially announced that French troops led by General Petain, will enter Metz tomorrow. Subsequently General Castelnau and General Mangin will follow with their armies.

The entry into Strassburg, which will be headed by Marshal Foch, will take place next Sunday and Monday.

CENSORSHIP.

The government censorship of newspapers and the voluntary censorship which was even more effective, have now both been abolished by war events. Any of the papers that have a lot of interesting information they have refrained from publishing can turn on the light of publicity. There is no longer danger of either giving aid and comfort or information to the enemy. It is interesting to remember how very thoro the voluntary censorship has been, for every newspaper seemed to make it a matter of personal patriotic conduct to see to it that no news item which might be in any way detrimental to the government was published. The discretion displayed by the newspapers has been several times complimented by the government.

G. A. R. STRENGTH.

The Grand Army of the Republic is a powerful organization now, even tho thru passing years its numbers have dwindled, as taps have sounded for one veteran after another. Now that the war is over and millions of soldiers are to return to civilian life, one can get a mental glimpse of how vast and powerful the G. A. R. of coming days will be. More than two million men are to return from overseas and a great armed force is at the cantonments in this country. That the men in the cantonments did not see active service is no fault of theirs, and in the days to come they will have just the same footing in the organization as veteran soldiers, just as they hold that place in the public mind.

The G. A. R. of 1919 and of later years will be able to accomplish just about whatever it wishes if there comes a unanimity of purpose and a well ordered organization.

REGULATING FARMERS.

Farmers who have had the feeling that they were quite restricted in their operations and who have occasionally chafed under the governmental regulations which have been a part of the war program, should compare their state with that of the farmers of England. There, because of the conditions of stress which the war brought, the farmer has hardly been able to drive out his front gate without asking for a permit. The Prairie Farmer in mentioning this subject says:

"When we get to thinking that government regulation of our business is rather severe, it is well to compare our lot with that of farmers in other countries.

"In England, for instance, all hay and fodder is under control of the army. The farmer must get a release from a special army officer before he can feed any of his own hay. The use of straw for bedding is forbidden.

"The farmer cannot sell a horse of work age without a special permit. If he has too large a proportion of his land in grass the government can order him to plow it up and put it into grain.

"There are compensations of course. The English government has gone much further than ours in supplying farm labor. It has also purchased a great many tractors and horses which are used in communities where help is particularly scarce."

IT'S HARD TO FORGET.

Everybody in the U. S. is rejoiced over the signing of the armistice and the abject surrender of Germany, for that is what the signing of the armistice terms really means. Along comes the plea from Dr. Solf for a mitigation of the terms so that Germany may not starve. For the most part American people are incredulous about this plea and cannot forget how unreliable the German government has proven itself in these past years, even in the matter of truth. Such gross misrepresentations have come from Berlin—such absolute ignoring of truth—that the people want some corroborative evidence before they can believe that famine is really stalking thru Germany.

Then too, the sympathy for the alleged sufferers in Germany is affected by the memory of the stories of cruelty in Germany which came thru from the war front. Men and women in Germany were authentically reported as rejoicing over the sinkig of the Lusitania. And then there were stories of how the German women displayed food before the eyes of hungry prisoners and then with jeers and taunts snatched it away. With the record of these and other still more inhuman acts still clinging to memory, it is not any wonder that Americans—and no doubt the allies—are somewhat slow about shedding any tears of sympathy for "Germans who are reported to be suffering for foodstuffs.

THE PROTECTION NEED.

If the charge be true that Republicans made a special struggle to gain control of congress because of the tariff issue, that is nothing for which the party should be ashamed. There is no question but that the party leaders had sensed how very important it was for the business of the country that the right tariff methods be followed in after-the-war-days. It is a matter of history that the development of Democratic free trade policies and the continued attacks made upon big business had resulted in alarming conditions in 1914. Along came the great war and stimulated business in countless ways and so saved the record for the party in power. Mr. Gompers said that wages will not be lowered in the after-the-war period without severe struggles.

It is interesting in this connection to consider some of the wages paid in other countries in the pre-war period. In those days a mechanic in China received from 10 to 20 cents a day and the same kind of a worker in Japan was paid 30 to 40 cents a day. In England the pay of a railroad brakeman was $5 a week. In Glasgow, Scotland, the street railroads are municipally owned and motormen and conductors received from $5 to $6 a week, with a maximum salary for the veterans of $7.50 per week. World war conditions afterward increased these wage figures to some extent but it is evident at a glance that without protective policies the workmen of this country could not expect to compete with such wages. Some of the theories of free trade are interesting but its results are decidedly the opposite.

THE MOST CONSPICUOUS FIGURES IN THE WORLD.

President Wilson has announced that he is going to attend the peace conference in Europe, and aside from any feeling of duty that he may have, who can blame the president for the desire to attend this conference—the greatest of its kind that the world has ever known. One can well imagine the reception that will be accorded to the president of the greatest nation in the world, the commander in chief of its armies.

"Over there" in these latter months it has been a custom of French and Belgian people to kiss the American flag. They look upon American soldiers as their deliverers from bondage, and the homage they and their governments will pay to the president of the great America can well be imagined.

Mr. Wilson in his decision to go to France, it is said, was influenced by the advice of Lloyd George of England, and Clemenceau of France. But no doubt there was with the president the lurking wish to have an intimate personal part in this conference, in which it is sought to establish the rights of mankind for all the years to come.

Woodrow Wilson has his critics. He has at times shown a disappointing disposition to be influenced by partisan politics. Nevertheless he has served as president of the U. S. during an epoch in the world's history. Backed by the people, he has piloted the ship of state thru the most tempestuous waters, with rocks and shoals threatening on either hand. Events made him the spokesman for the allied nations. By reason of the history of the United States all peoples turned toward him as the exponent of the new idea of self-government. For even tho nearly a century and a half of American history have passed, the ideas of liberty and self-government are new to most of the people of Europe.

So today Mr. Wilson can easily be termed the most conspicuous figure in all the world, and Americans, without party differences and without approving each individual act of his presidential life, can find great pride in the present glory of this government which he today so ably represents.

REMEMBERING THE LESSONS OF WAR.

McCutcheon's cartoon in the Tribune yesterday pictured the most acute danger of the present situation—that of the civilian immediately dropping all war time activities and forgetting the lessons which the war has taught. The cartoonist listed food conservation, welfare work, war charities, interests of the allies, fuel conservation, thrift and reconstruction work as burdens or duties which the civilian is apt to precipitately drop as he arrives at the corner of War street and Peace avenue and sees the vision of the peace angel.

Certainly it will be unfortunate indeed if the people generally do so quickly separate from their more recent activities and turn their back upon the habits of thrift and conservation that the war has taught.

And still more unfortunate it will be if the people forget the benefits of united efforts and lose the spirit of co-operation which the war has meant. In Red Cross work and in a half a dozen other activities the people have worked shoulder to shoulder in a way that would have seemed impossible in other days. Class and social lines have been entirely blotted out for the war brought about a common fellowship and a universal interest. The sons of the rich and the poor, were alike amenable to the provisions of the selective draft act, and so the mothers and the sisters of the rich and the poor and the great middle class came quickly to a common ground of understanding.

Let us hope that the coming of peace with its definite blessings will not lose for us the blessings which war days brought—those blessings which have meant a better understanding between the rich and those less fortunate, between capital and labor, between Protestant and Catholic. Let us nope that many of the distinctions, which were really not difference have been forever blotted out. The reconstruction period will bring many real problems and if we can keep the old war time spirit of 'give and take', these somewhat difficult and vexing problems will be the more easy of solution.

FLU SURVIVORS

If you've survived the frightful "flu," don't talk, with lungs of leather, about the pain you struggled through, but chat about the weather. I dread to meet the pallid jay, the convalescent duffer, who wants to talk for half a day of all he had to suffer. I want to talk about the war, of sabering and shooting; I want to tell how I abhor the Teut and all his tooting; but when I pause to draw a breath, the jay says in his frenzy, "I coasted down the edge of death, when I had influenzy. The doctor battled with the ill, and from me tried to drive it, but said as he produced his pill, 'He simply can't survive it. So many die,' he cried, 'alack! it is a shame to lose 'em.' then put a poultice on my back, another on my bosom. The fever made my blood to boil, the heat was like Sahara; they flooded me with castor oil, and flushed me with cascara. They poulticed me by day and night, my sneezes still grew louder; they fed me pills of dynamite and chunks of giant powder. The doctor said at last, 'I beg to doff my coat and sweater; I'll have to amputate a leg, and then he may grow better.' They put a poultice on my brow, they pumped me full of bitters, and I'd be dead and buried now, if I were like the quitters." For days and days he drools away, until the moon's senescent; I dread to meet the sickly jay, the boastful convalescent.

The Victory Girls there have gone over the top and every girl in the precinct over 12 years of age has made a donation toward this good work.

CHAPIN SCHOOLS STILL CLOSED

Announcement has been made that the Chapin school would reopen Monday, after having been closed for several weeks on account of influenza. However it was decided Sunday that there had not been sufficient improvement in conditions to warrant this change. Miss Mary Black, who is one of the teachers, therefore did not return to Chapin as she had expected.

FOUND MUDDY ROADS

WASHINGTON HAD UNIQUE CELEBRATION

Miss Mary Loar Gives Interesting Picture of National Capital When Peace News Came.

Miss Mary Loar in a letter to her sister, Miss Annie T. Loar of this city, gives some interesting facts about the peace celebration in Washington. Miss Loar, who has for several years been a teacher in the school for the deaf at Council Bluffs, Iowa, left her position there this year to engage in work in the national capital and is holding a position in the quartermasters department. Miss Loar's letter was in part as follows:

We stood on the west side of the white house, near where President Wilson reviewed the parade. Mrs. Wilson stood with him. Seven airplanes, symbolic of the spirit of the seven organizations flew over the line of march. The parade was simply swell in the afternoon. We saw Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo and their small daughter arrive at the White House in a victoria.

A spectacular climax to the national capital's wild peace demonstration was staged in the evening on the white house ellipse grounds just back of the white house. There were 48 huge bon fires, representing each state. At the Illinois bon fire, Illinois people gathered. One man said, "Any one here from Jacksonville?" I said "yes". He was surprised. His name was Gordon. He lives about nine miles west of Jacksonville and is stationed at Camp Myer. We went over to that camp Sunday as it is near Arlington.

Adding to the bon fire spectacle of 48 bon fires on the ellipse was an army flier. His course was traced by powerful searchlights. He dropped vari-colored bombs, shot off rockets and thrilled the throng by doing a number of stunts. Each state delegation was marked by a large placard and various groups entered into friendly rivalry in making the loudest noise singing their state songs.

Red, white and blue lights were thrown on Washington monument and the capitol. The marine band furnished music playing, "The Star Spangled Banner" several times. Moving pictures showed war scenes. Believe me it was some "Victory" war celebration on Monday and Monday evening.

Tuesday evening three of us girls went to see "Atta Boy." This was given by the soldiers from Camp Meigs. This is a camp that trains for quartermaster work. Believe me, it was some show.

PUBLIC SALE

H. C. Myer will hold a public sale of live stock, implements, hay, grain and household articles, Wednesday, Nov. 20th, commencing at 10:00 a. m., 6 miles northwest of Jacksonville. C. M. Strawn, auctioneer.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

Letter of Appreciation.

The local board has recently sent the following letter to Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe, who severed his connection with the board in order to enter the service of the army for which he enlisted more than a year ago:

Jacksonville, Ill.,
November 16, 1918.

Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe,
Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Sir:

This Board would acknowledge the receipt of your letter of resignation as member of our Medical Board in order that you may enter the army of the United States. We regret the severance of your connection with our Board, and take this opportunity to thank you for your services as dentist in connection with our war work; possibly some two thousand registrants have passed under your supervision. You have given much valuable time and attention to this work without compensation of any kind, and we feel that the thanks of the Board and the community are due you for your patriotic services.

Sincerely yours,
Miller, Weir,
Chairman,
Local Board for Morgan Co.

No More Examinations

The board yesterday received an order canceling instructions for the physical examination of all men. Accordingly the examination scheduled for next Wednesday, for which card notices had already been mailed, was canceled, and the examination will not be held. The board, however, has instructions to continue with the work of completing questionnaires for the men between the ages of 18 to 36. This is practically all done in Morgan county except for those who registered Sept. 12.

DISTRICT U. W. W. REPORT

J. S. Findley, as secretary of the U. W. W. organization, last night made the following report:

Scott county raised $13,000; quota $16,640.

Pike county raised $53,000; quota $52,950.

Cass county raised $31,000; quota $48,450.

The report of the Victory Girls and Boys in the four counties of the district shows the following:

Cass county—Girls $1,800; Boys $1,005.

Scott County—Girls, $506; Boys $500.

Morgan County—Girls $1,750; Boys $1,428.75.

Pike County—Girls $585; Boys $585.

Rev. W. R. Leslie went to Champaign yesteray for a brief visit with relatives. His wife has been there for several days. They expect to return the last of the week.

COUNCIL SESSION HAD FEW DETAILS

Reports from Departments About All the Business Considered — Water Still Flowing Into Lake.

The Monday morning city council session was quite brief and few matters came up for consideration. When Mayor Rodgers called for department reports Mr. Vasconcellos said that notwithstanding the copious rain that the supply of water has not filled Morgan lake. There is of course a great deal more water there than was true a few weeks ago and there is every indication that the supply will be adequate for the winter season, but the lake is not filled anywhere near the capacity. This, Mr. Vasconcellos said, indicates that the water shed is not sufficient to furnish Jacksonville with as large a supply as is desirable. The commissioner indicated that general conditions in his department are better since most of the men who have been sick have been able to return to work.

Commissioner White reported the grading work on Myrtle street has been practically completed by the road district officials, but that he had not yet given it the final inspection. He brought to attention some questions of drainage at the Chicago & Alton crossing of Myrtle street, expressing the view that the railroad should be required to put in a necessary ditch. Since the city and the railroad have joint interests there, it was the suggestion of the mayor and Public Engineer Henderson that if the city were to provide a steel culvert, that probably the Alton would do the necessary amount of work to place it in position.

Commissioner Martin reported the situation with reference to influenza as practically unchanged. He said that 24 cases had been reported from Sunday and indicated that the department intended to enforce more rigid rules with the hope of bringing the epidemic to a speedy end, so that business may again be put on a normal basis. He said that the spread of the disease was due to carelessness of members of families where influenza exists. Houses have now been placarded and strict quarantine rules are to be enforced. Mr. Martin mentioned the accident to the fire truck which made a new wheel necessary and said it was caused by inexcusable carelessness.

There was nothing to report from the department of finance and the council then adjourned.

Rest assured, to the men who buy Faultless Sleeping Garments of FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

MATRIMONIAL

Fiedler-Hobbs.

Word was received Monday of the marriage of Robert L. Fiedler and Miss Fidelia Hobbs. The wedding was solemnized at Beardstown Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. A. L. Caseley. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used. The couple were attendtd by Miss Denzel Newberry and Harry Harper.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Hobbs of 608 North Main street. She received her education in the Franklin public schools. For the past few months she has been the companion of Mrs. J. W. Ward, who recently passed away.

The groom is the son of Mrs. W. H Fiedler of Beardstown. He is employed as a machinist at the Burlington shops at Beardstown.

The young people have a host of friends who will wish them much happiness. After a brief wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at 1002 South Oak street, Beardstown.

One Man Tractor

The Case Tractor has proven its superiority for general utility purposes. It is the most practical one-man tractor. The two-plow tractor will pull two heavily loaded wagons, the driver occupying the seat of the first wagon. One gallon of kerosene consumed in the plowing of 6-10 of an acre. Many other tractors do not burn kerosene successfully.

First Aid in Influenza Prevention

At the first sign of a cold see that the bowels are open. Colds cannot gain a start if the system is free from food-waste.

When the bowels are inactive and food-waste lies in the system it ferments, creating dangerous poisons which are absorbed into the blood. Then the kidneys, lungs and skin pores are not equal to the task of getting this poison out of the system and disease gets a quick start.

Colds Precede Influenza

The colds that follow blood sluggishness, due to the poisons created by constipation, leaves the body an easy prey of influenza and after that—PNEUMONIA!

Ask any doctor what precaution you should take against colds, influenza and pneumonia and he will tell you to take a Thoro laxative. But pills, tablets and vegetable compounds are only partly effective.

Your druggist has a product called SALINOS that is a Thoro laxative which will completely empty the entire digestive tract, including the lower bowels, where most poisons are formed.

SALINOS is really pleasant to take, pleasant in taste and pleasant in action.

You can get a bottle of SALINOS for a Quarter (larger sizes, Fifty cents and a Dollar).

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments—Try This.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable, softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now.—Adv.

Science Solves the Butter Problem with Troco Made from the White Meat of Coconuts

Just when the price of butter threatens to make it an unattainable luxury, science perfects TROCO, the new vegetable butter made from the white meat of coconuts, churned with pasteurized milk.

It tastes like the finest creamery butter and is as wholesome and pure. Because of old laws, made before this discovery, we are compelled to label this nut-made butter as oleomargarine. But it contains no animal oils.

TROCO is simply vegetable fats, churned with milk for the butter taste. Yet this appetizing combination costs no more than the best oleomargarine.

TROCO

TROCO has the good qualities of fine creamery butter. The principal difference you will notice is the cost.

It is nutritious and easily digested. It possesses the fuel value needed for energy.

TROCO, when served, has butter's golden color, because your dealer supplies you with the same vegetable coloring used by all butter makers.

Used in cooking, it gives the same results as butter, except that it goes farther. Cooks should remember this and reduce the amount.

Your Dealer Can Supply TROCO

If your dealer doesn't already keep TROCO, ask him to get it for you. Tell him you must have this new-day successor to butter, because it solves one of the biggest problems presented by our high food prices.

Write Troco Company, Milwaukee, U. S. A., for Free Cook Book.

Standers, Walkers, "Gets-It" for Corns

World Has Never Known Its Equal.

"What will get rid of my corn?" The answer has been made by millions—there's only one corn-remover that you can bank on, that's absolutely certain, that makes any corn on earth peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Gets-It." Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not disturb you if you apply a few drops of "Gets-It" on the corn or callus. You want a corn-peeler, not a corn-fooler. You don't have to fool with corns—you peel them right off with your fingers by using "Gets-It." Cutting makes corns grow and bleed. Why use irritating salves or make a bundle of your toe with tape or bandages? Why putter and still have the corn? Use "Gets-It"—your corn-pain is over, the corn is a "goner" sure as the sun rises.

Corn-Pain Is Eased—the Corn Is Doomed!

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Armstrong's Drug Stores and Luly-Davis Drug Co.

BRITISH TRANSPORTS HAUL 22,000,000 MEN

LONDON, Sunday, Nov. 17.—(British Wireless Service.)—During the war the British admiralty transport service conveyed by sea 22,000,000 soldiers with the loss at sea of only 4,391. More than 120,000,000 tons of naval and military stores and more than 2,000,000 animals also were transported.

The British fleet and auxiliary craft grew during the war from a total of 2,500,000 tons to a total of 6,500,000 while the personnel increased from 146,000 to 406,000.

While in 1916 one hundred and sixty nine ships were sunk by mines only 25 ships were destroyed from this cause between January 1 and Sept. 30 this year. This has been due to the work of British mine sweepers who have steamed 1,132,000 miles during the course of these operations.

The salvage department of the navy has succeeded in salvaging 500 ships torpedoed by submarines or mines. Most of the vessels again were placed in commission by the British ship repairing yards.

JOHN P. WHITE RESIGNS

Washington, Nov. 18.—Resignation of John P. White a joint director of the bureau of labor of the fuel administration effective Nov. 30, was announced tonight by Administrator Garfield who said he accepted the resignation with regret because Mr. White's services had been "of inestimable value." Mr. White, who retired as president of the United Mine Workers of America to become labor adviser to the fuel administration will continue to consult with the administration on labor affairs.

U. S. TAKES CONTROL OF OCEAN CABLE LINES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. — Government control and operation of all ocean cable lines, owned in America under Postmaster General Burleson, is ordered by President Wilson in a proclamation dated Nov. 2, which has just been made public thru publication in the government's Official Bulletin. Officials in the postoffice department refused to discuss the proclamation today or to say whether any steps actually had been taken toward putting government operation into effect. The first intimation that the cables were to be taken over cam Saturday thru a statement at New York by Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable company, saying he had been informed of the action and criticizing the government for taking the step now that the war practically is ended. Mr. Mackey said the government already had complete control of the cables thru censorship and that government operation would result in loss "just as government operation of the land lines will result in a loss."

CIVILIAN AVIATOR KILLED BY FALL

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Allen Adams, of Elmhurst, Long Island, an aviator employed by an airplane company, was killed and Charles Arens, a mechanician of Chicago, was injured today when their machine, a battle plane converted for use by the United States airpost service, fell at Central Park, Long Island. The two men were on their way to Belmont Park, Long Island, where they were to take on mail bags for a test flight from New York to Washington. Rising to a height of 200 feet the men were enveloped by a dense fog and a few moments later the machine crashed to earth.

Adams had been an aviator for nine years and was regarded as a careful pilot. He was 28 years old and leaves a widow.

MARRIAGE OF FORMER PRINCE POSTPONED

BASEL, Nov. 18.—The marriage of Rupprecht, the former crown prince of Bavaria and Princess Antoinette of Luxemburg, which had been fixed for November, has been postponed until the middle of January, according to a message from Munich.

The former Bavarian crown prince commanded the German armies on the northern section of the western front until August of this year when he returned to Munich for a rest. He is forty nine years old and a widower his first wife having died six years ago. Princess Antoinette was born in 1899 and is one of five sisters of the Grand Duchess Marie of Luxemburg.

MISS WILSON INVITED TO OPEN VICTORY SING

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. — The National Council of Women tonight sent Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson, daughter of the President, an invitation to open the "victory sing" in France on Thanksgiving by singing the Star Spangled banner, at the same moment that millions of Americans at home under the auspices of the council join in the national anthem.

The Y. M. C. A. has cabled to its secretaries overseas a letter from Secretary of War Baker expressing his wish that "victory sings" be held in every camp, hospital and rest billet of the American Expeditionary force. "Sings" will be said, it is announced in all Y. M. C. A. army huts in the United States.

MANY WILL ABANDON COURSE

Camp grant, Ill., Nov. 18.—Indications are that more than 80 per cent of the students in the infantry officers' training school at Camp Grant will abandon the coursce at once under the option given them by the war department. In one company 13 elected to continue the course and 170 to retire. In another company thirteen decided to remain and 289 to return to civil life.

BRIEF CONSIDERATION GIVEN BILL

Washington, Nov. 18.—Brief consideration was given by the senate today to a bill by Senator Myers of Montana, authorizing the secretary of the interior to make a survey of un-entered public lands with a view to providing a place for discharged soldiers. The bill went over until Thursday after Senator Townsend, Republican objected to final action at this time, saying the measure should be made a part of general re-construction legislation.

Social Events

Sergt Smith Is Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCarty of Murrayville entertained at dinner Saturday evening Rev. Father Flynn, in charge of the United War Work campaign in Murrayville, and Sergeant Smith of the Canadian army. Mrs. McCarty was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Short and daughters, Misses Floreca, Lucille and Margaret, and son Floyd. The evening was one of great interest for all, Sergt. Smith relating a number of his war experiences during a four year period of service. It was a matter of regret that Sergt. Walsh, who is at home on a furlough from Camp Sherman, was unable to be present. Miss Mary Gray of Jacksonville was one of the guests Saturday evening.

BOYS OF DISTRICT SIX MADE GOOD

The Victory Boys in district 6 did not get started at their patriotic work in the War Work campaign as quickly as some others, but they worked with a will and made a clean sweep of the district. They were marshaled under the leadership of C. S. Black and all the boys in the district had a part. Last night they made a report at the headquarters showing subscroptions of $90.50. The boys in the group are named below and they spent a very pleasant social hour at the headquarters last night. They are Ben Cully, Eugene Stanley, Rual Chalmers, Everett Patterson, Charles Morris, George Gunn, Byron Houston, Earl Henderson, Paul Black and Harold James.

VISITED GREAT LAKES STATION.

Charles S. Black and son Paul have returned from a visit of two or three days with Clyde Black at the Great Lakes Naval Training station. The visit had been planned for several weeks but it was not possible for them to go until this time. They had the opportunity of visiting the bunk house and mess hall which are a part of Clyde Black's life, and were very much pleased by all they saw. The men at the Great Lakes station, according to Mr. Black, have the best of care and everything they want to eat. Clyde Black Monday began special school work in the line of activities to which he has been assigned. Everything at the Great Lakes station is proceeding just as it was before the armistice was signed and there is evidently plenty of work in prospect for men attached to the navy.

INFLUENZA CASES.

According to the record in the office of City Health Warden King there were twenty four more cases of influenza Sunday. For Monday the record was practically the same, as twenty five cases were reported. Two conferences of health authorities were held yesterday, as it is realized that the situation does not improve, regardless of quarantine restrictions which have been in effect now for more than four weeks.

Dr. T. J. Pitner, who has been ill with pneumonia, is improving steadily. He was able to sit up Sunday and glance over some of the 16 cards he had received from friends congratulating him upon his birthday.

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First Dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" Relieves the Cold and Grippe Misery—Don't Stay Stuffed Up!

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

Where Can I Find Relief from Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

This Question is Ever on the Lips of the Afflicted

Eczema, tetter, erysipelas, and other terrifying conditions of the skin, are deep-seated blood diseases, and applications of salves, lotions and washes can only afford temporary relief, without reaching the real seat of the trouble. But just because local treatment has done you no good, there is no reason to despair. You simply have not sought the proper treatment, that is within your reach.

You have the experience of others who have suffered as you have to guide you to a prompt riddance of blood and skin diseases. No matter how terrifying the irritation, no matter how unbearable the itching and burnning of the skin, S. S. S. will promptly reach the seat of the trouble and forever rout from the blood every trace of the disease, just as it has for others who have suffered as you have. This grand blood remedy has been used for more than fifty years, and you have only to give it a fair trial to be restored to perfect health.

Our chief medical adviser is an authority on blood and skin disorders, and he will take pleasure in giving you such advice as your individual case may need, absolutely without cost. Write today describing your case to Medical Department, Swift Specific Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Never before in history has there been as good a time as at the present to buy land as an investment. With the war over, business will get on a solid basis. The United States will have to replenish the devastated countries, which is going to take a long time; we have the ships to do our exporting, we have the materials, we have the provisions and the men to put it there. Prices on farm products are bound to be high and land will be higher. That land is a safe investment is proven by large capitalists making inquiries, the last few days, with the prospect of buying large tracts of land. I have farms of all sizes and kinds. Come and see what I have to offer. Also, city property of all kinds, and money to loan.

Your Opportunity

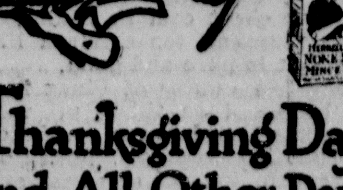

Never in the history of the world has there been as great an opportunity for the people of the rural districts as the present. The attention of the world has been turned to the products of the soil as never before; for grim necessity has caused those of wealth to save and divide with the millions of hungry and starving humanity. Not for years will the bins and granaries be filled again to their normal capacity.

We of central Illinois should take advantage of the golden opportunity before us; for we have the soil and water and climate, which, combined with intelligent cultivation of the soil and the rearing of live stock, will make us independent and when the boys come back from "over there" and tell us of the land selling from several hundred dollars to several thousand dollars per acre and paying dividends at that price because of intensified farming, then we will farm better and get better returns even with the advance in price of land that is sure to come, after the restoration of peace.

Now i sthe time to get you a farm before the big advance, for Capital is turning to land for an investment as never before.

Come and see me and I will help you get what you want.

Aches and Pains

I wonder if there is anything that causes more aches, pains and downright, disheartening misery, than indigestion — Indigestion, with its attendant troubles such as Constipation, Nervousness, Insomnia, loss of natural appetite and physical weakness, when it will yield so readily and quickly to the adjustments of the skilled Chiropractor?

As soon as these adjustments are made the nerve forces resume their proper function and the aches, pains and misery disappear. Why suffer? Why not drop in and tell me your difficulty?

FOOTBALL ABANDONED AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Influenza Caused So Many Postponements of Games that Coach Harmon Released Men from Training.

Last Friday Coach Harmon released the men of the Illinois College football squad from training. This action came because of the postponement of games by the influenza epidemic.

Coach Harmon found it difficult to get the men into shape without some games. The men also tired of constant drill with no contests in sight.

Illinois college never had a better array of talent or better prospects for a winning team than this year and it is regretted that health conditions were such that no games could be played.

Speaking of the situation last night Coach Harmon said that Illinois undoubtedly would have had a strong team this year under normal conditions. The coach said that while there also was some fine basketball material on the hill that it was not probable that Illinois would have a basketball five. This is because of the fact that the gymnasium is being used for a mess hall. It would necessitate the playing of games either at David Prince gymnasium of Armory hall and the men in the S. A. T. C. would not be able to get away for practice.

Coughing Tires the Old

Elderly people, tired out and weakened with coughing, will find great help and comfort in

FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR

It relieves those chronic coughs, usually bronchial in character, and puts a soothing healing coating on a dry and tickling throat. It raises phlegm easily.

George Perry Randall, Dayton, Nevada, in his 87th year writes:—"I take Foley's Honey and Tar for coughing and tickling in the throat. Sometimes the spell of coughing would last from five to ten minutes. I am very glad to tell you that Foley's Honey and Tar has stopped all that, and also the tickling."

Millions Are Weak and Ailing Because of Acid-Stomach

There are any number of people who for years have been sick and ailing, weak, run down and in a poor physical condition who will be surprised—even dumbfounded—to learn that their trouble has just been an acid-stomach, which is merely another name for what doctors call superacidity. Yet it is now positively known that acid-stomach is the cause of a very large number of diseases.

Excess acid in the stomach prevents proper digestion and assimilation, thus causing the blood to become thin and impoverished as a result of which people become sallow-skinned, emaciated and anemic.

Excess acid causes irritation all along the intestinal tract—irritation so severe and aggravating as to frequently result in catarrh and even cancer of the stomach.

Excess acid causes stomach and intestinal fermentation, producing poisons which, absorbed into the blood and carried throughout the system, cause auto-intoxication, insomnia, nervousness, irritability, mental depression, melancholia, dizziness, vertigo and, often times, valvular heart trouble and heart failure.

Yes, many people will be greatly surprised to learn that such a long train of physical ailments can be traced directly to an acid-stomach. But there is no need for surprise. Think what acid mouth does to the teeth. The acid eats right through the enamel—the hardest substance in the human body. And that is exactly what makes teeth rot and decay. No wonder, then, that excess acid in the stomach plays such havoc; causes so much ill-health and misery—makes so many people weak and ailing—unfit for either work or pleasure and brings on premature old age.

So often you have heard the remark: "I've taken all sorts of tonics and medicines and tried many different doctors but nothing seems to help me." Nine times out of ten the person making such a remark has an acid-stomach. And until the excess acid is removed, nothing WILL help. Remove that excess acid and the results are truly wonderful. Health and strength return almost like magic.

You can now rid your stomach of its excess acid. A wonderful modern medicine called EATONIC literally wipes it out. It does the work easily, speedily and thoroughly. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable. It helps you get full strength out of every mouthful of food you eat; and unless you DO get full strength from your food you cannot enjoy robust, vigorous health.

EATONIC is in the form of tablets. They are pleasant-tasting—you eat them just like candy.

Try EATONIC and see how wonderfully different you will feel. See how quickly EATONIC banishes the immediate effects of acid-stomach—bloat, heartburn, belching, food repeating, indigestion, etc. See too, how quickly your general health improves—how much more relish you take in eating—how much more easily your food is digested—how soundly you sleep—how nervousness and irritability disappear. And all simply because, by taking EATONIC, you get rid of a lot of excess acid that has been holding you back and making your life miserable.

This is the help you need. You need it to keep your stomach in a strong, healthy condition so that, in turn, your mind and body will be strong and vigorous.

It is so easy to get this help—and it costs so little. So why suffer another hour when sure, quick relief is at hand? Ask your druggist about it. He knows that tens of thousands of people all over the United States have used this wonderful modern remedy and the results have been nothing short of marvelous. Everywhere people who have used EATONIC testify to its power to bring quick relief. The testimonials of some of these people are so enthusiastic and tell of such remarkable results as to be almost unbelievable.

If you are one of those who have "tried everything," but in spite of it are still lacking in physical strength and vigor, begin at once to take EATONIC. Don't put it off. Get back your physical and mental punch. Have the power and energy to work with a vim. Enjoy the good things of life. Learn what it means to fairly bubble over with health. Like thousands of others, you will say that you never dreamed it possible that such a wonderful change for the better could be brought about so quickly.

So get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. We authorize him to guarantee EATONIC to please you and you can trust your own druggist to make this guarantee good. If EATONIC fails in any way, take it back—he will refund your money. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC write to us direct and we will send you a big 50c box. You can send us the 50c after you receive it. Address H. L. Kramer, President, Eatonic Remedy Co., Corner Wabash Avenue and 11th Street, Chicago, Ill.

OBITUARY

Rose.

Elizabeth Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, was born at Edinburg, Scotland, June 28, 1836; died after a brief illnes sat the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Dust, Tolono, Illinois, November 14, 1918, aged eighty-two years, four months, and sixteen days.

In her father's family there were seven children—five daughters and two sons. In the conclusion of her life the earthly history of the family of nine is brought to a close.

In the year 1857 she removed with her parents to Oxford county, Ontario, Canada. Here on Christmas day in the year of 1860 she was united in marriage with William Rose before the altars of the Presbyterian church in Harrfington.

To this union nine chilren were born. Four were born in the Canada home. There are John, deceased; Robert, of Ivesdale, Illinois; William, of Rantoul, Illinois, and Elizabeth Moss; five were born after the removal to a country residence in the vicinity of Jacksonville, Illinois. They are, Mrs. Mary Doty, Ovid, Mich.; Mrs. Christina Schultz, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Katherine Higgins, Tuscola, Illinois; Mrs. Marguerite Dust, Tolono, Illinois, and George, who died in infancy.

Her home was near Jacksonville until 1881, when the family removed to Tolono township, Champaign county, Illinois. The latter place was her home from that time until her death.

In early life she united with the Presbyterian church at Herrington, Ontario, Canada and cherished a Christian faith thru all the remainder of her life.

Mrs. Rose had enjoyed unusually good health throughout the most of her life and was able to be about some until a week before her death, which was due to infirmities of old age.

A never failing cheerfulness was an outstanding characteric-tic of her life and this was in evidence very close up to the moment that she very peacefully passed away.

Her husband preceded her in death about twenty two years. During the last fourteen years of her life she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Dust of Tolono Township, Ill.

All through her life Mrs. Rose was very active and found enjoyment in hard work. The task was never heavy enough to crush out her good cheer.

Mrs. Rose was well known as an old resident of this community and is well known at her former home near Jacksonville. Many friends in these localities will mourn her death and recall her cheerful and kindly disposition which will now remain a sweet memory to them throughout their lives.

She is survived by the following near relatives: five daughters: Mrs. John W. Moss; Mrs. Curtis Doty, Ovid, Michigan; Mrs. Walter Schultz, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Scott Higgins, Tuscola, Ill.; Mrs. Fred Dust, Tolono, Ill. Two sons: Robert Rose, Ivesdale, Ill.; William Rose, Rantoul, Ill., and fifteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

The funeral service was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Dust, near Tolono, Illinois, Sunday afternoon, November 17, Rev. H. L. Thrall, of Sadorus, Ill. officiating. Interment was in Craw cemetery, at Sadorus.

ATTENDING CONVENTION IN COLUMBUS

James H. Danskin has gone to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the annual meeting of the Anti-Saloon League of America. Since the liquor question is now one of dominant interest in the United States the sessions of the convention this year promise to be of more than usual interest. Mr. Danskin is superintendent of the Alton-East St. Louis district of the Anti-Saloon league.

REMOVE TO CHAMPAIGN.

Mrs. Mary Leslie and daughter, Miss Annie Leslie, left Monday for Champaign. Mrs. Leslie recently purchased property there and the family will make Champaign their permanent place of residence.

The Quick Way To Stop a Cough

This Home-made Syrup Does the Work in a Hurry. Easily Prepared, and Saves About. $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply — but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membrances that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect, on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—Adv.

EVIL EFFECTS OF IMPRUDENCE

A gentleman from another place was in the city yesterday and told the experience of a doctor in the city in which he lives. The medical man had had sixty cases of influenza and lost two. The first was a lady who suffered the usual way and was almost well. He dismissed her but charged her strictly to stay in bed four days longer. Imagine his surprise to see her the next day hanging out a washing of clothes. He remonstrated with her but she insisted she was cured. In 48 hours she was dead. The other was a case of a street car conductor. He too was practically cured and dismissed by the doctor with the stern injunction to lie in bed four days and no less. Next day the doctor met the man on a street car and reprimanded him. The man claimed he was wholly well and able to work but the doctor ordered him home but too late. He died in a few days.

CROSS STATE TRAVELERS

John B. Quigg, wife and three children arrived in town yesterday from Pueblo. They had been ten days on the way and were held up awhile at Valley City. They were bound for their home in Minier which they hoped to reach today. Their little Ford Car was well plastered with mud but seemed good for the remainder of the journey. Until they reached Illinois they encountered pretty good roads but after that the going was bad. They were prepared for camping which they did as long as the weather was good. Tho somewhat chilled they seemed in good spiirts.

RETURNS TO JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Arthur Angel and son, Francis, have returned to their home in this city after an extended visit in Moline, Rock Island and Davenport.

ILL. COLLEGE Y. W. C. A. IN REGULAR SESSION

The Young Woman's Christian Association of Illinois College met at three o'clock Monday afternoon. Miss Elaine Thiebaud, the secretary, announced that "The World Week of Prayer" will be observed during the coming week by the association. These meetings for united prayer for the various nations will be held at three o'clock each afternoon during the week and a special vesper service at three o'clock at Academy Hall, Sunday, November 24, will close the series. Miss Thiebaud then lead the first prayer service in behalf of the Y. W. C. A. work.

Miss Grace Marshall, chairman of the Missionary Committee, gave a very interesting review of 'The Road Ahead," a new missionary book by Elizabeth Wilson.

At the cabinet meeting which followed the officers decided to hold a Christmas bazaar on Dec. 7th.

Tape Bluing

Marks the End of Bluing Troubles On Washday

A STRIP of blued paper tape wound around a pasteboard spool and enclosed in a pasteboard box. The paper is marked off in coupons. One end of it issues from a slit in the side of the box. Tear off one coupon for each gallon of water, drop it in the tub and your work is done.

THE color on the paper instantly dissolves and the water is ready for the clothes. There will not be too much or too little color. That's out of the question. Guess-work is wholly eliminated because the quantity of blue is scientifically measured by the coupon. It is far more accurate than you can possibly be. The result will please you beyond measure. It will reveal the difference between guesswork and science.

THE tape does away with the ancient bottle of blue, the rags in tubes and balls of blue which become lost in the recesses of the pantry—the powders which form in aggravating lumps and streak the water and streak the clothes. It does your work for you better than you can do it. It simplifies everything. It protects you from the annoyance of too much blue or too little blue. It is scientifically accurate and can't fail. It is the blue without a drawback.

YOU can't possibly stain anything with this form of bluing. It can't become bluing until the tape enters the water. The tape itself won't stain your hands or anything else it happens to touch. But the instant it strikes the water it becomes the softest, cleanest, clearest blue you ever saw in your life. And it is going to make everyone say "Why didn't somebody think of this before." Tape Bluing will revolutionize wash-day.

Ask Your Grocer for It

One coupon for each gallon of water. Continuous tape of 55 coupons in each box. PRICE 10c

SLOAN'S FOR YOUR PAIN RELIEF

You don't have to rub it in to get quick, comforting relief

Once you've tried it on that stiff joint, sore muscle, sciatic pain, rheumatic twinge, lame back, you'll find a warm, soothing relief you never thought a liniment could produce.

Won't stain the skin, leaves no mussy waste, no time in applying, sure to give quick results. A large bottle means economy. Your own or any other druggist has it. Get it today

Sloan's Liniment Kills Pain

DON'T LET THAT COUGH RUN RIOT

Stop it with Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

The tens of thousands who use this medicine regularly to relieve colds, coughs, grippe, and bronchitis, testify to its prompt and effective action. Use it properly—give its helpful ingredients a chance to prove their value. Follow the first relieving dose with others occasionally until the cold or cough leaves you and you again feel [illegible] 30c., 60c. and $1.20.

An economical bottle, kept handy, means cold-freedom and thrift.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey for Coughs & Colds

For Burning Eczema

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any druggist for 35c, or $1.00 for large size, get a bottle of zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive, antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET UNSETTLED

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The stock market was in a state of suspended animation during the greater part of today's session prices for the most part rising and falling within circumscribed limits, altho gains prevailed at the close

United States steel an dmarine preferred divided the honors of the day, the former closing at a substantial fractional advance while marine held its 4 point rise. Rails recovered slightly, motors and oils were irregular at best with the several war groups and specialties displayed uncertain tendencies, aside from industrial alcohol which rose three points. Sales amounted to 550,000 shares. Most divisions of the bond market were disposed to ease internationals as well as liberty issues on a marked falling off in dealings. Total sales aggregated 9,600,000. Old U. S. bonds gained ¼ point on sales, gaining as much on call.

SHARP ADVANCES MADE BY CORN

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Sharp new advances in the corn market today resulted chiefly from attempts to anticipate the price effects of the hunger necessities of Europe. Quotations closed firm 2⅞ to 3⅞c net higher with December $1.28⅜@$1.28½ and January $1.29¾@$1.30.

Oats finished 1⅛@1¼ up and provisions varied from unchanged figures to a rise of 35c.

Reports from London that arrangements were being made for the dispatch of a number of German vessels to the United States to convey foodstuffs to Germany did a good deal to give fresh impetus to speculative demand for corn. Profit-taking sales caused a decided setback later. The top for the day showed an extreme bulge of more than 12c within a week.

Oats strengthened with corn. Hedging pressure, tho checked the gains, besides export bids were somewhat out of line.

Provisions were lifted by the upturns in grain and hogs. The transient break in corn led however, to reaction.

Woodson	2,889	1,555		1,334
	$51,817	$32,976		$18,841

The figures above show the condition of the United War Work campaign in Jacksonville and the outside precincts. In the city the total of subscriptions is $27,938, with the amount asked $28,749. In the other precincts of the county $51,817 is asked and the subscriptions thus far made are $32,976.

This leaves additional subscriptions of $811 to be secured in the city and in the county precincts $18,841. Franklin was the first precinct to go over the top and with reported subscriptions of $4,716, other money is still coming in. Concord has also the honor of being in the over the top class, that precinct's quota of $2,248 having been oversubscribed.

The complete reports have not been received from Literberry and Lynnville but members of the teams there declare that the quotas will certainly be subscribed, though thus far has reported only a few subscriptions. A meeting has been called by Aaron Howe and A. A. Curry to be held today at the elevator and it is planned to do some effective work.

Other Precincts

In Meredosia the progress of the campaign has been materially interfered with by road conditions. Committee members, however, intend to push the work now if the weather will permit.

After several days of seeming lethargy Centerville last night reported additional subscriptions of $46, which makes $46 toward its quota of $795. It seems to be very difficult to get men or women in that precinct to take the necessary active interest, but the general committee is hopeful of finding some plan today to get Centerville residents stirred up to the point of activity and subscription. In all other precincts of the county, altho totals have not been reached, canvassers are well organized and will proceed with the work.

It is the general understanding that the canvass is to continue until the money is subscribed and the county's good record in all war work activities thus maintained.

Campaign to Continue

At the noon day luncheon yesterday Dr. Rammelkamp read the announcement indicating that the general national campaign by action of the committee had been extended for two days. The peace celebration and the unfavorable health conditions made delays all over the country. In accordance with that action the campaign will be extended here thru two days, altho the last luncheon for Jacksonville workers will be held today. The conference yesterday was particularly for the hearing of reports and for the discussion of general plans for a continuance of the work today.

When ward reports were called for they were made as follows:

First ward:
John J. Ferry..... 279.25
Second ward:
F. J. Waddell..... 296.
Third ward:
John W. Merrigan... 923.86
Fourth ward:
H. H. Bancroft..... 1,726.

Special Subscriptions

Special subscriptions were reported as follows:

Rotary club, by H. M. Capps, $135.
Sorosis, 10.
History class, $5.
Fortnightly club, $5, reported by Mrs. H. P. Samuell.
Special rummake sale, $11.50.
Catholic Ladies' Aid Society, $25.
Modern Woodman, No. 912 $15.
Victory Bays, total for the city reported by J. S. Findley, $508.

H. P. Samuell, past exalted ruler the Elks lodge, sai it was impossible under present conditions for the lodge to hold meetings but that he was very confident the lodge would contribute at least $25. He mentioned in this connection that the Elks have contributed $2,000,000 toward the building of hospitals in reconstruction work in the east and that the assessment of the local lodge for this work is about $1,000.

From the County.

Dr. J. R. Harker made the report for the various precincts of the county, which up to that hour totaled $31,053. Additional subscriptions are reported in another column. Dr. Harker spoke of the precinct subscriptions as being both creditable and generous, especially in view of the great difficulties under which the members of the teams have been compelle to work. Because of bad road conditions much of the solicitation had to be abandoned and the workers have also not had the enthusiasm which results from general conferences such as those held each day in Jacksonville. He mentioned that he had asked the workers as far as possible to come to the luncheon Tuesday.

Chairman Rammelkamp said that J. S. Findley had much to do with the organization work in the district and asked him to make some report. Mr. Findley said that he had assurances from Pike county that the $53,000 asked will run close to $60,000. Detroit precinct in that county was assessed $800 and has already given $17.00. The report from Cass county is not so favorable but before the campaign is over the total is expected to reach the quota. The allotment there is $49,000 and the last report shows a total of $26,500. Mr. Findley said he accounted it a privilege indeed to be associated with the work and expressed the belief that before the campaign closes the whole district will have equalled its previous good record established in various campaigns for war activities.

The Situation Reversed.

The chairman called upon H. H. Bancroft, who has taken part in Red Cross, Liberty loan and other war time work in various parts of the state and this time is one of the solicitors in the fourth ward. Mr. Bancroft said he considered this a time rather for action than for exhortation and especially was this true since the workers had in past days heard a number of able speakers. He expressed his pleasure, however, in being able to take some active part in the campaign. He related a number of personal incidents where people whom some of the workers had hesitated to call upon gave more than the card quota.

In closing he quoted a statement made by Prof. Graham Taylor in a Chicago paper recently He said that up to Nov. 11 the people were looking to the millions of soldiers this country has sent into service for defense and protection, but after November 11 the situation was reversed and the soldiers are now looking toward the people to protect them by continuing the various war activities.

What Will America Do?

The last person to speak in this informal symposium was Rev. C. A. Nyman, vice president of the Illinois Woman's college. Mr. Nyman related the incident of the first returned soldier to come to Chicago, a lad suffering with a wound in the lung. At first there was some misunderstanding and he was not able to secure money for his actual needs, but later on the case was given proper care. Mr. Nyman said the incident had brought to his mind often the question, "What will America do for her soldiers after the war is over?" And he was finding his answer in the spirit with which the people are entering this present campaign.

The speaker suggested that this is indeed a time to show whether or not our patriotism is of the dollar variety. His timely remarks were brought to a close with some lines from Sam. Foss especially popular just now as they emphasize that same spirit which James Whitcomb Riley immortalized in his lines: "Just a hand upon the should in a friendly sort of way."

WANTED-50 to 100 Volunteers

To nurse, to help care for the sick; to help prepare food; autos to carry food to the sick. The Red Cross hospital has nineteen patients and only two nurses; and another hospital is needed! Every facility is available but nurses. Whole families are ill with no one to care for them but the sick who do so at the risk of their lives.

Some need trained nurses, some practical nurses, and some, any person able and willing to help, whether with or without nursing experience.

The good people who have been preparing and delivering food are wearing out under the strain of five weeks' steady work. Who will volunteer their services or the use of their auto to relieve them?

Do not delay! The need has never been so great as right now. YOUR HELP MAY SAVE A LIFE.

All who will help communicate with the chairman, with Miss Martha Coale, or the superintending nurse of either hospital. Give name, address, telephone number, and state what you can and are willing to do.

E. P. BROCKHOUSE,
Chairman Red Cross Influenza Committee.

THE U. W. W. CAMPAIGN

The last luncheon for the workers in the United War Work campaign will be held today. It is not the "last call", for calls will continue to be made upon every precinct which may not have completed its quota by that time; but every team and every committee are urged to complete their canvass by that time and make a final report.

Many representatives from the county will be at the meeting. Come and help us go over the top, and so celebrate another victory for Old Morgan.

C. H. Rammelkamp,
Campaign Chairman.
Joseph R. Harker,
County Chairman.

RED CROSS NOTES.

The Chairman of the Christmas Package Committee has received the following letter from National Headquarters:

"The War and Post Office Departments have issued an order extending mailing date for Christmas parcels to November 30th.

"The War Department has authorized the Red Cross to have printed a sufficient supply of additional labels exactly similar to those received from abroad to be furnished to individuals who have not received or who have lost or destroyed the label if applicant signs this statement."

"I hereby make application to forward to ..... (name) of ———— Organization, American Expeditionary Forces, a Christmas package. I hereby declare that I am the nearest living relative in the United States of the proposed receipient, that I have not received a label from abroad, and should such label be received, it will not be used, and to the best of my knowledge and belief only one Christmas parcel will be sent the proposed recipient.

WILLIAM TURLEY ANSWERS SUMMONS

Death Came Sunday to Well Known Resident After Long Illness.

After many years of illness William A. Turley passed away Sunday morning at 4:30 o'clock at Passavant hospital. Mr Turley had been an invalid for twenty five years but the final illness which brought his death was pneumonia, from which he had been suffering for about ten days. It was about two weeks ago that Mr. Turley contracted a cold and when he returned from a drive was so thoroly chilled that he told those in his home that he would go into the out doors no more this season. The cold developed into pneumonia and on the advice of his physician he was removed to Passavant hospital last Wednesday. There everything possible was done for his cure and relief but without avail, and his spirit slipped away at the hour named.

Mr. Turley, who was the son of Thomas A. and Margaret A. Turley, was born in this city January 3, 1868. He attended the public schools here and Brown's Business college, and subsequently conected with a wholesale firm in Omaha. After a brief residence in the western city he returned to Jacksonville and thru a period of twenty five years has suffered from locomotor-ataxia. The disease was one which affected his body but in no way touched his mind, and thru all the years of increasing incapacity he manifested a spirit of cheerfulness which was a constant source of inspiration to his friends. No day seemed dark or cheerless for him and notwithstanding his continued illness he had a supreme optimism that buoyed him thru suffering years.

In the warmer months of the year Mr. Turley drove in his phaeton constantly and it was always his pleasure to take someone with him. So he has lightened the way for many a weary person and when he was too ill to ride himself he always insisted that his horse and phaeton should be lent to friends. In still other ways he manifested the generosity of his spirit and indicated that he had learned the marvelous lesson of forgetting his own troubles in the effort to add to the happiness of others. Tho not equal to the tasks of routine business, Mr. Turley for several years carried on some special lines of advertising in which he interested merchants and more than a year ago he took the agency for a fire insurance company and had written a considerable number of policies. So industry against great physical odds was another characteristic and his friends found in his life much that was worth while and admirable.

His mother, Mrs. Margaret A. Turley, who died but a few years ago, gave to her son the most loving care and devotion. After her death this trust developed largely upon his sister, Miss Alice Turley, and thru the years she has given him unsparing devotion. His other sister, Mrs. Warren Price, a resident of Chicago, made it a practice to spend a month or more in Jacksonville each year for the special purpose of being near her brother and giving him any aid within her power.

Mr. Turley was a member of Grace M. E. church of this city. In the final hours he seemed to know that the end was not far distant and expressed the joy that he was to have relief from pain and pass beyond the portals of the eternal city.

Mr. Turley is survived by two sisters, Mis Alice Turley of this city; Mrs. Warren Price of Chicago; two nieces Misses Grace Oakes and Margaret Price, and one nephew, Eugene Oakes.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, 901 West State street.

GAMMA DELTA MEETING

Gamma Delta society held its annual initation meeting Friday Nov. 15. The iniation by which Misses Bennett, Best, Brav, Candee, Chipchase, Finney, Fox, Knapp, Oakes, Reeves Russel became members of the society was a simple impressive ceremony. It was followed by a program on war poetry given by Miss Betty Ames. A delightful social hour ended this meeting, which each year has come to mean so much to certain girls "on the hill."

A French baby was adopted by the Gamma Delta Literary Society.
